Minds Behind

Architect Ramanan is the lead faculty for this Creative Writing programme. In 2012, he quit his high paying profession with India's leading architecture practice in Chennai to become a teacher for budding architects and creative enthusiasts in the city. He is also the author of the self-help book titled "Shifting Gears", which presents a fresh perspective to motivation and positive thinking by taking inspirational lessons from automobiles to lead a successful life. For a student to develop a love for the language the teacher needs to be engaging and inspiring. Ramanan's passion towards teaching, writing and ability to engage children enhance their confidence levels in expressing themselves creatively in English.

ArtheePriyaa is the founder of HappyCoach and Readers are Leaders (a library for children). She is an expert in mass communication, print, media, journalism and advertisement with over a decade of experience as a consultant in the corporate world. Arthee along with Ramanan formulated this creative writing program for children after a lot of research and reflection. She teaches reporting, journalism, publishing and graphic design. She also brings in expert guest faculty to let children gain more perspectives, learn insights by actively interacting with new people and be inspired creative writers.

FAQs

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I put my son who is in 4th grade on the programme? Is there any admission criteria?

Yes, you could. We admit children who are between 9 yrs and 14 yrs. We expect the child to have interest in listening, reading and writing English.

How do I enrol my child for the creative writing programme?

After filling up the application form and making the payment, you will receive an e-mail or letter from us acknowledging that we have received and accepted your registration.

Can I make the payment in two parts?

Yes, you could. Typically, in a two stage payment, a minimum of 50% of the course fee has to be paid as the first installment before the course begins and the remaining can be paid after the first 10 sessions. When you make the payment as a single payment the course fee of 18,000/- is offered with a 15% discounted price at just Rs.15,300/-.

Once enrolled can I cancel the registration? What about refunds?

You can cancel your registration and seek a 100% refund if you do so within fourteen days of registration / before the commencement of the 1st session of the creative writing course whichever is earlier. Otherwise, there will be no refunds on delayed cancellations. In exceptional circumstance you may be able to transfer your enrolment to a different course, or substitute a different student onto the same course, run by HappyCoach, subject to any administration fees. Course fees already paid can be transferred to the new course and any outstanding balance must be paid in full before the student can be registered on the new Course. No refund will be given if the cost of the new Course is less than the cost of the original Course.

What are the regulations to complete the course successfully?

All 30 sessions are compulsory. In case the child misses a class, then he or she may be given a compensatory class to brief them on what happened in class. Usually, these sessions are held on either Tuesdays or Thursdays.

What can I expect from the Course?

The aim of the course is to develop the creative thinking and writing abilities in children between 9+ and 14 yrs. The curriculum does not lay emphasis on Standard English grammar and works towards enhancing their sense of self-worth, self-esteem and self-confidence in expressing themselves creatively through different forms of English.

Do you record the sessions?

We may take visual and/or audio recordings of Students during the Course and reserve the right to use these for promotional, management or educative purposes. Students' individual consent for this will be assumed to have been granted unless otherwise indicated by students, in writing or by email, prior to the start of the Course.
